

Directions to Koba

From Brighton station (by foot)

Cross the road onto Queens Road heading south towards the sea. Walk as far as the clock tower and turn right onto Western Road. Walk for approximately 5 minutes. The entrance to KOBA is on the right above Nicolas wine merchants, just before Waitrose Supermarket.

From the A27 (by car)

Take the Hove exit off the A27, follow signs to Brighton down Dyke Road, which will lead you to Seven Dials Roundabout. Take the fifth exit (opposite) onto Vernon Terrace leading onto Montpellier Road, crossover the traffic lights leading towards the sea. Turn left at the bottom (facing the seafront) and either second left (Little Preston Street) to drop off at KOBA, turning left at the top or alternatively third left to park in the NCP at Regency Square that is a two minute walk.

From the A23 (by Car)

Head down London Road leading onto to Grand Parade and the Old Steine. Take the third exit at the roundabout opposite Brighton Pier heading West. Pass the Grand Hotel on your right and follow signs to NCP Regency Square. To park turn right into Regency Square that is a two minute walk to KOBA. To drop off take the turning on the right after Regency Square that is Preston Street, turn left at the top. The entrance to KOBA is a few metres along Western Road on the right above Nicolas wine merchants, just before Waitrose Supermarket.

Directions from NCP Regency Square

Head to the top left hand side of the square that leads onto to Preston Street. Turn right onto Preston Street and then left at the top and cross the road. The entrance to KOBA is on the right above Nicolas wine merchants, just before Waitrose Supermarket.